Cemeteries The Parish Office is currently in the process of updating the old and new graveyard records for Derrylin. In order to ensure accuracy, we invite anyone who has a plot in their own/family name to come forward and confirm it on our graveyard maps. Should anyone have information about burials/graves where markings do not exist, we would appreciate obtaining such information. Where a grave is owned by an individual or family, and not yet been used and therefore not marked, the Parish Office should be informed so that the information is included on our maps. We urge people to confirm plots by 31st December 2018. Please call into Fiona in the Parish Office, Wednesday to Friday 10am to 1pm to do so.

All Stars: Thanks to everyone who attended our Club All Stars awards night. Guests were entertained by the excellent 'Travellin Trads' and 'Power Struggle' on the night as 22 winners picked up their awards. The night would not be possible without our generous sponsors, plus a huge effort by the judges John McElroy, Vincie Martin, Mary Sweeney, John Doherty and Michael Glynn who attended every game along with the events committee led by Seamus Owens who made it all possible. We were delighted to make contributions to Cancer Connect and the Sean Cox fund with some of the proceeds on the night.

RIP: The club extend sympathies to Fintan McGovern and family, Mullynaherb, Derrylin on the passing of his wife Siobhan (nee Gilleece) and to the Donegan family Aughyoule, on the passing of Mary, wife of Joe, mother to Brenda, Niall, Joseph and Paul. The family play a huge role in our club and we offer our sincerest sympathies to them. May they both Rest in Peace.

Feast of families in Knock Shrine! Come to Knock on the 17th of November for a day filled with faith, food & fun! The celebration will include mass, individual talks for parents, young adults and children, games, adoration and individual blessing for each family. Knock is important for families as it is the place that Our Lady brought her family to bless the people of Ireland. The celebrant of the mass is Fr.Shane Sullivan & the speakers on the day are Fr.Mark Byrne (SOLT) & Pure in Heart. Bring a packed lunch. For more info contact Michelle on 0852032711 or michelletherese3@gmail.com

Drama is coming to Templeport, our own John Mc Manus's new play Loophole performed by The Acorn Players Mohill, starring Phillip Flood. Show starts at 8-30pm on Friday 23rd November in Templeport Resource Centre. Organised by Bawnboy Heritage.

On Tuesday last a group from the parish visited the Royal Irish Academy in Dublin to view a precious manuscript known as the Book of Knockninny. The manuscript was compiled in Knockninny parish under the patronage of Brian Maguire around 1718. Our parish group were the first Knockninny natives to view the manuscript in 200 years. A team of scholars are planning to write a book about this important part of our heritage which will be launched in Knockninny next October. The trip to Dublin was organised by the Aughakillymaude Historical Society.

KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER

11th November 2018

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection Grief

Though the silent weeping of your heart lessens, you get on, more or less, with your life; a place is kept within you for the one who is gone. No other will ever be given the key to that door. As the years go on you may not remember the departed every day with your conscious mind. Yet below your surface mind, some part of you is always in their presence.

From their side, our friends in the unseen world are always secretly embracing us in their new and bright belongings. Though we may forget them, they can never forget us; their secret embrace unknowingly shelters and minds us.

The bright moment in grief is when the sore absence gradually changes into a well of presence. You become aware of the subtle companionship of the departed one. You know that when you are in trouble, you can turn to this presence beside you and draw on it for encouragement and blessing. The departed is now no longer restricted to any one place and can be with you any place you are. It is good to know the blessings of this presence. (John O'Donohue)

The Widow's Mite

In today's Gospel, Jesus is courageously speaking out against the hypocrisy of the religious leaders of his time. He is encouraging all his followers to engage in a reality check. The hypocrisy of the scribes is in total contrast to the humility and generosity of the widow in the second part of the Gospel. She gives not of what she has to spare, but everything she has. She is freer than the others. We can be quick to make judgements about another person's commitment based on what we see happening on the outside. Those leaders who acquire the best seats and show up in all the frills may not actually be all they appear to be. Jesus is urging us to look into the person's heart for what is there is far more important than all the trappings on the outside. The widow gives everything and this does not have to be about money. We might recall those today who give us their time, their support, who pray from the heart and give of themselves expecting nothing in return. We might thank them, pray for them. We can also look into our own hearts today and challenge our motivations for what we do. Can we give more of ourselves to God or to someone we love? A listening ear, 'wasting time' with people, looking at how we spend our money. Jesus calls us to search our hearts and the hearts of others in today's gospel. The widow models Jesus' way of discipleship in contrast to the those in positions of leadership and power.
.Jane Mellett

If Jesus draws our attention to the generosity of the poor widow captured forever in this splendid Gospel page, it is no doubt because it is an image of his own redemptive generosity. Everything has been given. There is nothing left to give. Jesus surrenders himself totally in his death on the cross and in that act of redemptive generosity he opens up for us the way to salvation. If we are to share with him the glory of resurrection we will need, first of all, to share in the sacrificial generosity of his death. Our generosity, our surrender, needs to match his. This is the promise of our Baptism, what we commit ourselves to afresh every time we involve ourselves in the dynamic of the Mass.
