KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER

25th November 2018

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

‘So you are a King?’

Today is the Feast of Christ the King and this Gospel certainly gives us an opportunity to lay aside a lot of cultural baggage we may have about kings, leaders and kingdoms. The Jewish leaders want Jesus executed and so they bring him to Pilate who engages in a debate with Jesus on ‘kingship’. Jesus is accused of claiming to be a ‘king’ and this passage plays on both the political and religious meaning of that word. Pilate is concerned with whether or not Jesus poses a threat to Roman rule, while the Jewish religious leaders are worried about the type of ‘Messiah king’ Jesus claims to be. Through his ministry Jesus has shown them that His kingdom is unlike the one that Pilate, or many other earthly leaders know. It is a kingdom built on love, service, justice, reconciliation and peace. Few ‘kings can measure up to this. Jesus is a servant King, a beacon light for today’s world. Who do you know in our world today who is the more living example of this type of kingship? When you look at the world’s political leaders, do they shine like a beacon light striving for peace, justice and care for the earth? On this Feast of Christ the King we celebrate a type of kingship that is a display of radical love. What a different world we would have if all those who hold power and authority led in such a way. Let us pray today that all leaders will be open to listening to the Spirit and strive for a more just world. Jane Mellett

Those who are too good, too gentle, too sincere, too meek, too humble, end up, as a rule, exploited and mocked, sacrificed on the altar of expediency. So it is in the kingdoms of this world. The world knows that too much goodness leads to the cross and takes time off from its obsession with personal and collective security to laugh heartily at such naivety. The truth that the world cannot perceive is that goodness leads through the cross to resurrection and life. Pilate thought to survive, but he survived only to live wretchedly and die another day. The secret of Jesus is that those who are willing to die today to the selfish demands of survival at any price will live forever. It is Jesus, not Pilate, who is truly free. Fr James O’Kane

Reflection on Death

Go, silent friend, your life has found its ending; to dust returns your weary mortal frame.
God, who before birth called you into being, now calls you hence, his accent still the same.
Go, silent friend, your life in Christ is buried; for you have lived and died and rose again.
Close by his side your promised place is waiting where, fully known, you shall with God remain.
Go, silent friend, forgive us if we grieved you; safe now in heaven, kindly say our name.
Your life has touched us, that is why we mourn you; our lives without you cannot be the same.
Go, silent friend, we do not grudge you glory; sing, sing with joy deep praises to your Lord.
You, who believed that Christ would come back for you, now celebrate that Jesus keeps his word

Builders of Eternity

Isn’t it strange that princes and kings and clowns that caper in sawdust rings,
And ordinary folks, like you and me, are builders of eternity.
To each is given a bag of tools, an hour-glass and a book of rules;
And each must build `ere time has flown, a stumbling block or a stepping stone.
