KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER

7th April 2019

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Don't look back

'No need to recall the past,
No need to think about what was done before.
See, I am doing a new deed...'

(Isaiah 43: 18-19)

'All I can say is that I forget the past and I strain ahead...'

(Phil 3:13)

These poignant words taken from today's first and second readings provide the perfect preamble to our dramatic Gospel reading.

Perhaps the line that is most often quoted from the story of the woman caught in adultery is Jesus' challenge to the crowd who bring her before them

' If there is one of you who has not sinned, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.'

It is a challenge to all of us to look inward before we 'cast stones' to judge others.

But there is another equally powerful statement here by Jesus, this time to the woman herself. It is delivered quietly, when she is left alone with Jesus after all her accusers have drifted away: 'Neither do I condemn you. Go away, and don't sin any more.' We notice that Jesus doesn't rake over the woman's past. He doesn't ask her about the claims of her accusers. He does not condemn or criticise her. Instead he accepts her, loves her, treats her with the respect and dignity that was so lacking in the mob, and gently nudges her forward into a new way of living.

Trocaire Lenten Campaign

The annual Trocaire Lenten Campaign. At a time when so many things seem so wrong around the world, you might wonder if there is anything you can do to make a difference.
