KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER

5th May 2019

Third Sunday of Easter

This Easter-tide as we travel on our pilgrim way, may we be aware of God as our Creator.

Awaken our senses Lord to the beauty of the world.

Help us to hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.

Alert us to our individual duty to take care of our common home.

We pray that we will always be mindful of the perfect connection between God, the earth and every living creature.

Amen.

A Prayer for our Mother Earth

All powerful God you are present in the Universe And in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love,

That we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with your peace that we may live

As brothers and sisters harming no one. O God of the poor,

Help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it,

That we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, To be filled with awe and contemplation,

To recognise that we are profoundly united with every creature

As we journey towards your infinite light. we thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray in our struggle, for justice, love and peace.

(Pope Francis; Laudata Si)

Reflection:

The theme of light and darkness in John's Gospel is strong. In today's reading, we hear that it was 'just after daybreak' when Jesus appeared to the disciples. The disciples had been fishing all night but caught nothing. Then, with the dawn, Jesus appears on the beach and gently suggests that they cast the nets on the other side of the boat. We are invited to reflect on resurrection here, moments where we were given a sense of new life, and with that, an abundance of gifts. Perhaps a friendship had broken down or we were dealing with a crisis. Like the disciples, we may have simply been going through the motions of day to day life, in the dark, without much enthusiasm. And then... daybreak. A gentle voice guided us, a friend or in a moment of prayer. In time, we realised that this was Jesus' voice pointing us in the right direction, and once we allowed ourselves to be guided by Him, the 'catch' was huge.

The end of the passage sees Jesus asks Peter three times if he loves him. Peter is once again by a charcoal fire so this scene mirrors the three denials of Peter during the trial of Jesus. Peter becomes upset, and one can understand the regrets he must have. Yet here, Jesus is giving Peter the space to undo his denials. There is healing, new life. We can imagine Jesus' question to Peter at the end of the passage being addressed to us: 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?... Tend my sheep!' Place yourself in this story throughout the week.
