KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER

2nd June 2019

The Ascension of the Lord

Goodbyes are often emotional:

'They were still staring into the sky.' The apostles had just witnessed Jesus being 'lifted up' and taken from their sight. They had lost him once with his death, and now they are losing him a second time, after precious time spent with him following his resurrection.

But the scene in today's first reading for the Ascension is no ordinary goodbye. It is not a dramatic scene written for a film script. In fact, Jesus does not seem to say goodbye at all. His last words are a promise to the disciples: the Holy Spirit will be with them as they set out on their mission. They have not been left alone.

Reflection for Cemetery Sunday: Though the silent weeping of your heart lessens, you get on, more or less, with your life; a place is kept within you for the one who is gone. No other will ever be given the key to that door. As the years go on you may not remember the departed every day with your conscious mind. Yet below your surface mind, some part of you is always in their presence. From their side, our friends in the unseen world are always secretly embracing us in their new and bright belongings. Though we may forget them, they can never forget us; their secret embrace unknowingly shelters and minds us. The bright moment in grief is when the sore absence gradually changes into a well of presence. You become aware of the subtle companionship of the departed one. You know that when you are in trouble, you can turn to this presence beside you and draw on it for encouragement and blessing. The departed is now no longer restricted to any one place and can be with you any place you are. It is good to know the blessings of this presence.

(John O'Donohue)

DIOCESAN CELEBRATION FOR BISHOP LEO O'REILLY in the Cathedral of SS. Patrick & Felim, Cavan, on the Feast of Pentecost, Sunday 9 June 2019, at 3:00p.m. to mark the Golden Jubilee of his Ordination to the Priesthood and his recent retirement as Bishop of Kilmore.

THE ANNUAL VISIT OF THE RELICS OF ST. OLIVER PLUNKETT TO THE CONATY CHAPEL IN THE KILMORE DIOCESAN PASTORAL CENTRE IN CAVAN will take place next Tuesday, 4th June. The relics will be available for veneration from 10:00a.m. to 10:00p.m. Masses at 1:15p.m. 5:45p.m.; and 8:00p.m. Confessions available from 12 noon to 1:00p.m.; 4:30p.m. to 5:30p.m.; and 6:30p.m. to 7:45p.m. All are welcome to this very special event. Please see posters on church noticeboards.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit by St Augustine

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, That my thoughts may all be holy.

Act in me, O Holy Spirit, That my work, too, may be holy.

Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, That I love but what is holy.

Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, To defend all that is holy.

Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, That I always may be holy.
