Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

18th August 2024

In today's Gospel, Wisdom invites us to eat her bread & drink her wine. Christ the true wisdom invites us to eat his flesh and drink his blood. The life that the Father communicates to his son comes to the faithful through the Eucharist.

Each time we come to Mass, we take part in a real way in the death and resurrection of the Lord, the sacrifice of Christ on the cross and his resurrection is 'made present' among us. It is a place and time of grace.

Our Eucharist today is not just to commemorate something that happened many years ago. It is our commitment to Christ in his people, and our faith in his real presence among us in the Eucharist and in each other.

Jesus asks us to share the bread and cup, to proclaim this 'mystery of faith' for all time, we proclaim today that the Jesus of the tabernacle is the Jesus within all of us. Let's be amazed that within each of us, God dwells in Jesus Christ.

Fr Donal Neary, S.J

Leave The Rest to God

Journeying on through the years,
Speak with kindness, cause no tears.

Do some good along the way,
Do a little every day.

Never idle precious time,
Never grumble, scold or whine;
As far as earth is from the skies
Above all petty quarrels arise.

At the failing of another,
Be it friend or be it brother.
Never sneer, and never deride,
Help the weak and conquer pride.
Let no good by thee be marred,
Let no duty seem too hard,
In all things bravely do your best.
And then to God just leave the rest.
